

Logan Case At Lyons.

Lyons, Dec. 20.—The trial of Henry C. Logan on a charge of murder of Will Miller July 28 last, began at noon today. From the first panel of twenty-six jurors a full jury of twelve was selected without delay, and before adjournment late in the afternoon ten or twelve witnesses had been examined. Apparently the evidence that Logan committed the murder is conclusive, but the defense has not yet shown its hand. County Attorney Clark of Barton county, assisted by Judge D. A. Banta, is conducting the prosecution, while Wilbur Jinks, of Great Bend, is defending. Jinks was appointed by the court.

Logan acts strangely unconcerned as though the whole affair had no more meaning to him than a peplevin suit about a dozen chickens. At the same time he appears to be intelligent enough, and follows every detail of the progress of the case with apparent great interest. His wife, a young woman not over 22 years of age, while Logan himself is at least 45, and her mother, both from Ottawa, are attending the trial. It is probable that the case will go to the jury tomorrow evening certainly not later than Thursday. Hutchinson Gazette.

Jinks, the attorney mentioned above is not a Great Bend man, but an attorney from Ottawa.

Useful Gifts For Christmas

ONE of the useful gifts for Christmas would be a piece of furniture for the home. We could mention a number of articles that would suit different rooms in your home but, is your kitchen completed? Here is where the actual work is done and the actual steps are taken. A "Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet" will greatly lessen this work. If you have been led to think differently of this cabinet through misrepresentation, come in and let us explain it to you.

A Large Line of Specials

A number of pieces of furniture that do not sell readily will accumulate in a stock of this size. Perhaps there is nothing wrong but they do not sell. Every one of these we have marked with a green ticket marked "Special," which means cost price to us. Every piece of furniture so marked is a true bargain. Look over these before you purchase and perhaps you can save money. Don't forget the large line of pictures and mottoes, just fine for 15c, 20c and 25c gifts.
